57-0386 Accident-Fall From TreeFebruary 21, 1957

A 235-pound Brockton man plunged 20 feet to the ground today when a safety rope broke, police said, as he was trimming a tree at Summer street and Coral avenue. Lawrence Tilton, 29, of the West Elm Hotel, survived the fall despite the fact he landed on his head on frozen earth, police said. At Brockton Hospital, he was reported to be suffering from a concussion and questionable fractures of the right elbow and right ribs. X-rays were being taken to determine the full extent of his injuries.

57-0789 Pembroke Herring Run BusyApril 23, 1957

Operated by the town of Pembroke, the herring run not far from Pembroke Town Hall has been attracting hundreds of visitors lately as the fish swarm up the river to Oldham pond to spawn. Photos, above, show typical scenes at the run. No 1, Warren S. LeFurgey, 17, of Pembroke, surveys says the sign which tells the history of the site and the story of the alewives. No. 2 Loring F Tuells, Tree Warden and herring superintendent, pushes a big school forward before a wire screen in preparation to scoop out excess fish. Many are allowed to pass upriver to spawn, but others are caught and sold for a nominal fee, the money going back to the town for improvement of the area. No.3, 12-year-old Douglas B. Fraser of Mattakeeset Street, Bryantville, has no trouble grabbing a herring from the pool. No. 4, Mr. Tuells scoops a netful into a herring bin. No. 5, another youthful fisherman, Stephen E. McCarthy, seven, of 146 Tribou Street, Brockton. No. 8, from the bin, the herring are taken by Supt. Tuells and his assistant, Harry L. Monk, and placed in barrels for sale.

Fanning but it wasn't until the other day that they polished it under direction of John F. Carter of the faculty and then, as a lesson in medieval history, had one of their number try it on in the classroom of Miss Elisabeth M. O'Hearn. The one selected was 14-year-old ninth-grader H. Ross Gustalfson, 195 pleasant street, largely because he was the right height (five feet eight inches) and right weight (115 pounds) for the armor size. In scenes above he is being equipped with his iron suit before the entire class.

57-1342 Accident Arlington & West Elm StreetsJune 6, 1957

Two persons sustained slight injuries and two cars were damaged extensively in a collision of two vehicles at Arlington and West Elm Streets at 6:45 this morning. Mrs. Gertrude W. Sanitano, 44, of 397 Spring Street, identified by police as operator of one car was treated at the Brockton Hospital for numerous abrasions and a shaking up. Miss Gertrude Harris, 17, of 189 Spark Street, was treated for numerous lacerations. Both were discharged. According to Patrolmen Dodero and Dechristopher, Mrs. Santiano was operating southerly on Arlington Street and a car driven by Mrs. Gladys Carpenter, 42, of 8813 Albernald Drive, Norfolk, Va., was travelling easterly on West Elm Street when the collision occurred. The patrolmen report that after the colision the Carpenter car continued on and damaged the lawn and a tree of Mrs. Maria Costeno, 137 Newbury Street. They said the head, front ferders and grille of the Santiano car were damaged and the left front fender, door, grille, and right front fender of the Carpenter car were damaged. Both vehicles were towed away. According to the police report, both operators said they did not see the other auto until the instant of the collision.

57-1642 Rudolph L. LaBonte - accident sceneJune 29, 1957

Three persons claimed injuries when two cars collided at the Bellevue and Sawtell Avenues at 11:25 P.M. Friday. Both vehicles were towed away. Treated at the Brockton Hospital were: Shirley Davock, 19, of 3 Glendale street, cut nose, road burns on body and cuts on both knees; Ronald Allen, 19, 1022 Warren avenue, cut face; Rudolph L. LaBonte, 47, 197 Court street, taken home, where he was treated by his physician. Robert Bergeron, West Bridgewater, reported uninjured. Police said that LaBonte was driving north on Sawtell avenue and Allen east on Bellevue avenue when the accident took place. The impact forced the Allen car 20 feet from the point of contact. The Davock girl was thrown out of the car. Another passenger in the Allen car, Janice Cary, 17, 134 Auburn street, was taken to the hospital but complained only of a shaking up. The right front fender and wheel of LaBonte's car were damaged as was the right front of the Allen car. Patrolmen P. K. Johnson and J. J. Lyons took the injured to the hospital and Patrolmen Khoury and E. Tamulevich investigated.

57-1759 Scientific FarmerJuly 12, 1957

Scientific Farmer is 18-year-old Robert G. Sturtevant, Plymouth street. Halifax, who between times working on his father's poultry farms, finds opportunity to sail his home-made radio-controlled boat and to fly his model seaplane which actually takes off from the water of nearby West Lake, Monponsett. One of four children, Bob will take up electrical engineering at the University of Massachusetts which he will enter as a freshman in September. He's being aided in his boat and plane projects by his 15-year-old cousin, Raymond P. Sturtevant, also of Plymouth street, Halifax. Both model boat and plane in photos above were built painstakingly by young Sturtevant in long hours of spare-time work. The boat will be on display at the Congregational Church fair hobby show Sturday in Halifax Town Hall.

57-1821_1 Mrs. PerryJuly 22, 1957

Down in Halifax (Mass.) lives a rather remarkable lady who despite her 92 years is intensely active and, among other things, prides herself on her ability to bake bread- good, old-fashioned bread of the kind seldom made in modern homes. Two or three times a week, Dinah Perry, 92, kneads the dough, carefully arranges it in a pan and places it in the oven to bake. Mrs. Perry, who lives with her two daughters, Mrs. Alex J. King, and Mrs. B. Mabel Renshaw, on South Street, Halifax, gives "hard work" as we know it a key to her longevity. She does all her housework, reads, cooks, and acts the part of one much younger. And, she says, "I've never had a sick day in my life."

57-1863 Accident - North Cary + East Ashland streetsAugust 13, 1957

One slightly injured in Montello Crash, One person complained of minor injuries as a result of a collision between two cars at the intersection of North Cary and East Ashland streets at 6:55 P.M. Tuesday. Miss Dorothy Hunt, 14, of 79 Waldo street told Patrolmen McCarthy and Farewell that she sustained bruises of the back and head, and she would be examined by her physician. The officers said she was a passenger in a car operated east on East Ashland street by John F. Doody, 52, of the same address. Other passengers in the Doody car were listed as Mrs. Doody, 47, and their daughter, Frances, 14. Police said the other car operated north on North Cary street by Robert Chandler, 52, of 104 Cherry street, Whitman. A passenger in the latter car was identified as Ida Chandler, 27.

57-1864 Accident Warren Avenue and Winthrop StreetsMarch 16, 1957

Driver arrested after crash, Three police cruiser-ambulances were dispatched to Warren avenue and Winthrop street shortly before 3:30 Saturday afternoon after four emergency calls had been received at head-quarters by Deck officer Edmond J. O'Leary concerning a two-car head-on collision at the intersection. Eugene Davis of Milwaukee, Wis., currently residing in Hyannis, operator of one of the vehicles involved, who police say, was arrested by patrolmen Sharon and Roach. He was unable to leave his machine until police arrived on the scene, one of these doors on his auto having been sprung as a result of the impact. In order to free him from the car, Patrolman Roach forced open the door. Atty. Eben G. Townes appeared in Brockton District court for Davis today, stating that his client was a patient of Brockton Hospital and unable to appear. Davis was charged with drunkenness, operating under the influence, operating to endanger and driving without a license in his possession. Judge Kupka continued the case to March 25 to set a date for the trial. Mrs. Josephine Kelley, 43, of 630 Ash street, identified by police as the operator of the other car involved in the collision was taken by patrolmen Doderio and DeChristopher to Brockton Hospital where she was treated for a laceration of the forehead and back injuries. Her two children, John, nine years, and Nancy, six, who suffered minor injuries and a shaking up were taken to the hospital by a neighbor. Force of the impact, police say, drove the Kelley car into a parked machine by the side of the road, registered to an Alice M. Butler, 15 Martland avenue. Traffic at the scene and the investigation was handled by Patrolmen Ruggiera and Varrano.

57-1866 Accident Howard streetMay 27, 1957

Two accidents occurred but only one person claimed injuries during Monday afternoon's rain. Another minor accident took place after the storm. Edward Ubertis, 19, of 71 West Chestnut street, complained of injuries to his left arm and shoulder and loose teeth, but was discharged after treatment at Brockton Hospital. Ubertis was a passenger in a car involved in a collision with another car in front of 256 Howard street. The operator was Joseph M. Grusso, 20, of 4 Florence street, operator of the other car was Lawrence F. Allen, 43, of 1022 Warren avenue. Both cars had to be towed from the scene. Ubertis was taken to the Brockton Hospital by Patrolman Joseph Upton. The accident was investigated by Patrolmen Ralph Clark and Alfred Sharon.

57-1867 Accident Hanover-Rout 3July 24, 1957

3 Injured in Accident in Hanover, A Dorchester man was hospitalized and two women were slightly injured, when the car in which they were riding went out of control on Dead Man's Curve, Washington street, Route 3, shortly after 7 Wednesday evening, side-swiping a guardrail, and hit a tree. Edward Costello, 28, of 333 Genoa avenue, Dorchester, received severe lacerations of the scalp and was admitted to the South Shore Hospital. Also taken to the Hospital were Miss Margaret E. McEleney, 21, of 52 Bailey street, Dorchester, and Miss Barbara Walton, 24, of 132 Jaffrey street, Weymouth, both suffered cuts and bruises and were released. According to the police the car was operated by Miss McEleney, who said she was forced off the highway by two cars coming in the opposite direction, one occupying the right hand lane. All were treated at the scene by a passing doctor and then by cruiser to South Shore Hospital. The accident was investigated by Patrolmen Thomas Axon, Russell Beard and Wendell Blanchard, under the direction of Police Chief John W. Stodard. Also assisting were Asst. County Identification Officer William Blanchard, Norwell Parolmen Baldwin, Molla and Cavanaugh and State Trooper Rizzo of Norwell Barracks.

Hayford of Kingston where he was finally called for by his mother. It seems that Leslie, though wearing a tag designating his name, could not tell school bus driver Charles A. Angus of Halifax where he lived as he was being taken home from school in Plymouth. Mr. Angus didn't want to let Leslie out in Halifax alone, fearing a possible mishap and neither could he wait to discover his identity since he had commitment to return to Kingston for Silver Lake pupils. The result, Leslie had an additional ride to Kingston where he waited with Mrs. Hayford until his mother was finally notified and there ensued a tearful reunion.

At least that is what Bernard T. Gothage, 34, Skinner street, learned today when he discovered an Oct. 17, 1878 copy of the Brockton Weekly Gazette while tearing down a barn at the home of Edmund R. Leonard, 121 Belcher avenue said the Gazette: " The Storm of wind and rain last Saturday was the severest for years, though fortunately it was affended with no great amount of damage in its vicinity. About 4 inches of rain fell, which besides filling up the long exhausted cistems, did not a little to replenish the wells, streams and ponds."

57-2789 Accident Belair and Prospect StreetsNovember 12, 1957

Ten' persons, five women, four men and one child, were taken by police to the Brockton Hospital within 45 minutes Tuesday afternoon after two separate accidents at Belair and Prospect Streets. Personal injuries were not serious, but there was a considerable amount of property damage to the four cars involved and all had to be towed to a garage. The first accident occurred shortly after 2:30 when police said, a car operated by Frank MacIsaac, 54, of 25 Ripley Road, Belmont, traveling westerly on Prospect Street, was in collision with an auto operated northerly on Belair Street, by Eleanor L McMackin, 44, of 34 Herrod Avenue. Both drivers were taken to the Brockton Hospital. MacIsaac complained of a back injury and the woman had cuts, bruises, and possible internal injuries. The two operators were held at the Hospital for X-Rays. All other persons involved were discharged after treatment. Riding in the McMackin Car were Mrs. Lucy M Bruce, 73, of 64 Farrington Street, who had a severe bruise and cut on the head, and Mrs Augusta Edlund, 71, of 58 Sheridan Street, North Easton, who has head and face injuries. Mrs Edlund is the mother of Atty. George F Edlund. 57-2866 Porter-Bishop WeddingNovember 17, 1957

Baskets of white flowers, palms and lighted candles in candelabras decorated the South Congregational Church Sunday afternoon for the ceremony in which Miss Nancy Hathaway Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Bishop of 1159 Main Street, became the bride of Kenneth Russell Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Porter of 14 Portland Street in one of the loveliest weddings of the season. The pastor, Rev. David B. Johnston, officiated at the double ring service at 3 o'clock. The bride had her cousin, Miss Jean Moulton, as maide of honor, Mrs. Richard Cudmore, cousin of the bride; Miss Therese Proulx and Miss Carolyn Mellman, all of this city, served as bridesmaids. The bridegroom's cousin, Samuel Sakells of this city, performed the duties of best man, and the ushers included Louis Peloquin of Halifax, Robert Sammons of Bridgewater; and Richard Gaye of Stoughton. Traditional wedding music was played by church organist, and Francis J Schulte was the soloist. The pews for the family were marked with small old-fashioned bouquets. The bride was lovely in an exquisit gown of imported French rose point lace and gossamer tulle, fashioned with a portrait neckline, long wristpoint sleeves and basque bodice. The full, bouffant hoopskirt with tier upon tier of lace over tulle terminated in a court train. A lace plateau hat held in place the bride's triple tier veil of imported french silk illusion, and she carried a white Bible with an orchid and stepanotis. The maid of honor and bridesmaids were gowned in peony pink velveteen, ballerina-length styled with bateau neckine, cap sleeves and cummerbund waist of matching slipper satin with full flared skirt. They had matching satin slippers and wore matching velveteen pill box hats with white ermine tails and carried white ermine muffs with pink carnations. For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Bishop chose a sheath style cocktail dress of peacock peau stain and velveteen in a peacock shade, with an orchid corsage. Mrs. Porter, the bridge-groom's mother was attired in a mauve lace sheath with pink feathered hat and white accessories, and she had an orchid corsage. The reception was held at the Walk-Over Club in a setting of cut flowers. A catered buffet luncheon was served and an orchestra played for dancing. Mrs. Marilyn Dunnington was in charge of the guest book. Mr and Mrs Porter left on a wedding trip to Niagra Falls and Canada. The bride is a graduate of Brockton High School, class of 1954, and is employed at the Goddard Hospital in the office department. She is a majority member of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls, and is a member also of the Junior Women's Club and the South Congregational Church. Mr. Porter, a graduate of Brockton High School, presently serving in the US Navy on the aircraft carrier USS Wasp. Before entering the service he was employed by a local chain store. He is a member of the First Baptist Church.

57-2916 Owens-McCreven WeddingNovember 16, 1957

St. Margaret's Church was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding this morning when Miss Alice Marie Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Owens of 167 Copeland Street, became the bride of Cornelius Paul McCreven, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McCreven of 25 Highland Avenue, Arlington. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Joseph L. Dunn, prior to a nuptial mass at 10 o'clock for which the altar was decorated with Chrysanthemums. The bride had her sister-in-law, Mrs. Everett L Owens, Jr., of this city as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jane Beggan of Arlington, niece of the bridegroom, and Mrs Ralph L Owens, Jr., of Eastondale. Patrick McCreven of Charles town performed the duties of best man for his brother, and ushers were Everett L Owens, Jr., brother of the bride, and John McCreven of Somerville, brother of the bridegroom. Music for the rites was played by Mrs. William McGowan , church organist, and soloist was Mrs. Josephine Bruno Murphy. The bride's gown was of imported Chantilly lace, fashioned with Sabrina neckline, long wristpoint sleeves, basque bodice and full, bouffant hoopskirt, tier upon tier, terminating in a court train. A matching lace crown encrusted with tiny pearls held in place the bride's waist-length veil of imported French Silk illusion, and she carried a cascade of carnations and stephanotis with orchid centre. The matron of honor and bridesmaids were gowned alike in two-tone nymph green, ballet-length, fashioned with scoop neckline, cap sleeves, empire bodice and full bouffant skirt. They wore matching crowns with shoulder veils and matching slippers, and carried ballerina bouquets. The matron of honor had yellow carnations and the bridesmaids, tow-tone scarlet carnations. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Owens chose a navy dress with lace trim and powder blue satin inserts, and navy accessories. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. William Beggan of Arlington, wore navy blue with navy accessories. Both had corsages of camellias. A reception to 125 guests followed at a Campello Inn. Mr and Mrs McCreven left on a three-week wedding trip to Florida and other southern states. The bride was attired for traveling in a beige tweed knitted suit with beige and brown accessories and topper. The couple will reside at 45 Irvington Street on their return. The bride attended Brockton schools and is employed by the Boston Ordnance District at the Army Base. Mr. McCreven attended schools in Charlestown. He also is employed by the Boston Ordnance District.

57-2953 Bridgewater's favorite School Visitor is Penny November 15, 1957

A dog owned by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Belmore, 44 Mount Prospect street, who insists on daily visits to the teacher's college training school where the Belmore grand children, Maureen J. Marzelli, six, and Kathleen J. Marzelli, seven, children of Mr. and Mrs. James Marzelli, 21 Alden square, South Bridgewater, are enrolled. Penny figures it's much easier to walk the short distance from her home to school than to travel four miles to the home of the children. She has become such a favorite at the school that all the pupils look forward to her visit and she easily picks out Maureen's desk from among the others and sits down underneath it. Above, Maureen, Kathleen, Penny and the other pupils listen to school discussion by the regular teacher, Miss Ruth T. Staupas of Brockton.

57-2996 Police Free Youth in Station Wagon WreckDecember 7, 1957

Thomas F. Perry, 20, of 241 Copeland street, had a compound fracture of the right leg, possible chest injuries and multiple lacerations and was reported in fair condition this afternoon at Brockton Hospital where he was taken shortly before 9 this morning after the station wagon he was operating crashed into a tree on Grove street, near Spring avenue. Perry was trapped for a short time after the crash which pushed him under the dashboard but was quickly extracted by the police and firefighters. The Station Wagon was facing Westerly after the crash and was on the sidewalk on the South side of Grover street, just a few feet east of Spring avenue. The front end of the Perry car was pushed in with the hood nearly up against the windshield. Part of the chromium rim was found some distance from the tree by police. Perry was taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Walter Carison and John Burns and the accident was investigated by Patrolmen Joseph Upton and Jack Sweeney.

57-3048 Woman, 75, Badly Hurt; Hit by Auto December 7, 1957

C. May Villiers, 75, of 57 Fuller street, was in serious condition with head injuries, a broken hip and lacerations this noon at the Brockton Hospital after being struck by a car at 10:15 while walking in the street nearly in front of her home. Police say the operator, Nancy D. Morris, of 162 Richmond street, told them she was distracted by a puppy riding in the car with her and it caused the car to swerve and strike the woman. The woman was taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Joseph O'Leary and Joseph Noonan and Patrolmen Joseph Upton and Jack Sweeney investigated. Police said the car went up over the sidewalk after the accident and the left front headlight was damaged. The injured woman's glasses were knocked off and broken by the impact.

Janet E. Moeller, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Moeller, 242 Warren Street, boasts not only one but two unusual pets that follow her around the house. Janet, a girl scout, holds one of them, a box turtle given her by her sister, Mrs. Dorothy Correa, who acquired it in Missouri while on a trip to Colorado, five years ago. Both this and the other turtle in the household have come to know Janet and both walk to the kitchen when they want food or water. The box turtle above is particular about its diet and will eat only tomatoes and cantaloupe while the other pet likes grasshoppers which Janet caught during the past summer and froze in the deep freeze for winter use.

57-3188 Miss Mary Riley Becomes Bride of John J BarboneDecember 15, 1957

The wedding of Miss Mary Louise Riley, daughter of Mrs. Frances L Riley of Brockton and Pembroke, to John J Barbone of Quincy and Providence R.I., was solemnized Sunday at 3 o'clock at St. Patrick's church. Rev Joseph W Kenny officiated in the double ring ceremony. Attending the bride was Miss Arlene Twomey as maid of honor, bridesmaids were Mrs. Frank McMorro of Jackson Heights, L.A., Miss Eileen Murphy of Newton and Miss Barbara Morris. Serving as best man was Anthony DiGiacomo and ushers were Laurence A Natarangelo, George Cirillo and Robert Sandonato. Given in marriage by her uncle, C Frederick Reilly of Boston, the bride was attired in a gown of French Chantilly lace and a pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of white orchids. The bride's attendants were gowned alike in burgundy velvet dresses and tiaras encrusted with pearls. They carried bouquets of pink carnations. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Riley chose a continental blue velvet and a tiara of rose velvet set with pearls. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. Barbone, mother of the bridegroom was attired in an Alice-blue gown of peau-de-sole and chantilly lace and she wore a tiara of blue satin set with pearls. Her corsage was also of pink roses. Following the ceremony a reception was held. For their wedding trip to Miami, Fla., the bride was attired in a navy blue dress with mauve-pink accessories. On their return they will reside in their newly built home in Quincy. Mrs. Barbone is a graduate of Brockton High School. She attended Boston university and Mt. Ida Junior College previous to receiving her BS degree from Lesley College in Cambridge. She has been teaching at the Sprague School. She is the niece of School Committee Woman-elect, Atty, Madelene L Reilly of Boston. Mr. Barbone is a graduate of Quincy High School and served four years in the Navy. He is associated in business with his father in Providence.

57-3207 5 Hurt When Cars crash in BrocktonDecember 27, 1957

Five persons, including a five year old boy and his mother, claimed injury in two separate auto crashes within an hour late Friday afternoon. Four cars were badly damaged. James E Martin ,five, of 146 South Main Stret, West Bridgewater, was shaken up, and his mother, Edna, 41, received a bruised arm and right knee, while riding in a car driven by John F Martin, 44, authorities said. The Martin auto, traveling south on Warren Avenue, was involved in a collision with a car driven out of Winthrop street by John A Carlson, 71, of 10 Carroll avenue, just before 4 P.M. According to report by Patrolmen Thomas Roach and Norman White, Morris Bjorklund, 86, of 10 Carroll Avenue, a passenger in the Carlson car, suffered a lacerated scalp and possible chest injury and was admitted to the Brockton Hospital for observance. Carlson was shaken up by impact, police reported. The injured were taken to the hospital in two cruisers by Patrolmen Carlson, Bruns, Sharon and Edmund O'Leary. All but Bjorkland were released after treatment.

57-3236 Quincy Man,22, is Killed InstantlyNovember 2, 1957

A Quincy man was hurled to instant death and six persons were hospitalized in a three-car crash at the intersection of Rockland Street (route 139) and Columbia Road (route 3) shortly before 1:30 this morning. The toll: James Killian, 22, of 49 California avenue, Quincy dead; Patricia A Lucey, 22, of St. George Street, Duxbury, admitted to South Shore Hospital and later transferred to Quincy Hospital; Richard Green, 21, of North Carver, admitted to South Shore Hospital and later transferred to Jordan Hospital, Plymouth; Evelyn M Frazier, 24, of Castle Street, Plymouth, admitted to South Shore Hospital and later released; James J Lyndon, 22, 47 Willard Street, Quincy, admitted to South Shore Hospital and later released; John F Flaherty, 22, 209 Common Street, West Quincy, admitted to South Shore Hospital, later released; Charles F Murphy, 22, 261 Willard Street, Quincy, admitted to South Shore Hospital, later released. Treated for minor injuries: Robert Dobson, 25, of Green Harbor; Mr and Mrs Philip Huntley, 25, of Broadway, Hanover. Albert Parkman, 23, of Duxbury Street, Duxbury, one of the drivers, was unhurt, police reported. According to police Mr and Mrs Huntley, who had been visiting friends in Rockland, were awaiting in their car for the traffic signal light to change at the intersection, when the cars operated by Albert Parkman and Lyndon, approaching on Route 3 from the north, sideswiped each other, knocking Sign Down. The Parkman car was driven off the highway, taking down a traffic sign at the start of the intersection of Route 139, a set of signal lights on a pole in the grass plot which divides the intersection and came to a stop when it collided with the Huntley Car. The car operated by Lyndon continued on for more than 500 feet. Killian was hurled from the wreckage 300 feet from the intersection and death came almost instantaneous according to Dr. Raymond Vinal of Norwell, medical examiner. Police Chief John W Stoddard was assisted by Hanover Patrolmen Thomas Axon, Russell Beard, T Drew Bates and Wendell Blanchard. Through the police radio, cruisers from Rockland, Norwell, Pembroke, and Hanson were quickly dispatched to the scene to take the injured to the South Shore Hospital. Assisting the Hanover Police were Hanson Patrolmen Robert McNamara and Erving Foster, Rockland Patrolmen William McGarry, Alfred Newhall and Richard Packer, the latter dispatching the emergency calls from Rockland Station; Norwell police Chief Kenneth Bradeen, Pembroke Patrolmen Ernest Christie and Robert Morris; State Troopers Richard and Jennings and Leo Sullivan of the Norwell barracks, County Identification. Officer Howard F Levings, Asst. County Identification Officers William Blanchard and Motor Vehicle Inspector John Bellrose. Hanover firemen wet down the area because of the danger of the gasoline. Riding with Lyndon were Flaherty, Murphy and the fatally injured Killian. Riding with Parkman were Dobson, Green, Miss Lucey and Miss Frazier.
