54-1457 Water Damage as Sprinklers are ReleasedAugust 13, 1954

Quick work by Brockton firefighters in covering valuable equipment at offices of the Eastern Cut Sole Co., King-Size, Inc., and the Tanner Shoe Co., 24 Forest Street, in the George E. Keith building, prevented more severe damage as some seven sprinkler heads let go Friday afternoon when fire ignited the blower system of the Benco Shoe Co., in the floor above. Main office, above, looked like this as water dripped from the second floor onto desks and chairs. Leather stock office fixtures, finished shoes and vital records were reported damaged from excessive water. The actual fire was negligible, according to Chief Lynch, who immediately ordered extra firemen to the scene to provide protective covering to materials and sweep out tons of water.

Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson of 915 Main St., were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. Edward's Church. Rev. John T. Dunne officiated. Alternate description: Miss Paula Jean Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Blake of 76 Merton St., and Donald E. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson of 915 Main St., were united in marriage Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. Edward's Church. Rev. John T. Dunne officiated. Baskets of white pompons adorned the altar and wedding music was provided by Miss Blanche D. Pickering, organist, and John O'Brien, soloist. Rita Urenas of this city was maid of honor and Patricia Kijanski and Janet Blake, both of Brockton, were the bridal attendants. The best man duties were performed by Donald Smith of this city and Robert Feeney of Brookville and Donald Pendergast of Brockton ushered. The bride wore a gown of traditional white satin with inserts of lace, a full skirt which ended in a cathedral train, fitted bodice with long wrist-point sleeves. A crown of seed pearls held her fingertip veil of French illusion. The maid of honor wore a waltz-length gown of lilac tulle over satin with a matching lace cape and half-hat of tulle and flowers. The bridesmaid's gowns were of the same design, one in Nile green and the other in yellow. Mrs. Blake, mother of the bride, was attired in mauve faille with navy accessories while the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Johnson, wore a gown of light blue with black accessories. Both had shoulder corsages of orchids. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the 125-guests who attended from New Hampshire, Fall River, this city and surrounding towns. Mrs. Johnson presented her maid of honor a gold cross and chain and the bridesmaids with compacts. The bridegroom's gifts to the best man and ushers were cuff links. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are now on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination and upon their return they will reside at 915 Main street. Mrs. Johnson's traveling ensemble included a light wool gray boxer suit with navy accessories, a blue topper and a corsage of orchids. Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson attended Brockton schools and Mr. Johnson is employed by a local concern.

55-0440 Earl Fl. Terry Has Scalp Injury When Auto Skids February 27, 1955

Attempting to avoid striking a dog which darted into the roadway in front of him on Center Street at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, Earl H. Terry, 22, of 16 Hill Street, applied the brakes of his car which then went into a skid, mounted the sidewalk in front of 590 Centre Street and went onto the lawn of a nearby residence and stuck a tree. Terry, who suffered a bad laceration of the scalp, was taken to Brockton Hospital for treatment by a passing motorist prior to the arrival of Patrolmen O; Leary, Lucas, Carlson, and Burns in an ambulance and two cruisers. The car which is the property of Robert Brady, 19 Grove Street, was badly damaged and had to be removed from the Scene by a stretcher from a local garage. Damage was caused to the lawn of Helen and Ethel Gesan at 590 Centre Street.

55-0469 Brockton Cat Finally RescuedMarch 2, 1955

After remaining on a third-floor window ledge of the City Theatre building most of Wednesday afternoon despite efforts to coax it down, a black cat was finally rescued at about 4 o'clock by Lawrence F. Allen, 41, of 14 Holmes Street, a salesman for the Brockton-Taunton Gas Company, who himself almost tumbled down 3 stories from a fire escape in the attempt. These pictures, by Enterprise-Times Cameraman Stanley Bauman, tell the story. Top left, Allen places boards from the fire escape to the sill to induce the cat to walk to safety; top right, he endeavors to push the animal onto the boards with a broom. Lower left, failing this he leans way over in an attempt to grab the cat; lower right, almost losing his balance, Allen makes a lunge forward, grabs the cat and pulls it to safety. In "gratitude" the cat ran down the fire escape and disappeared into a room which formerly housed a ventilating system next to the City Theater Building.

55-0749 Huge Brockton ExcavationApril 15, 1955

Excavation is the pit being dug off Belair Street to provide gravel and fill for the new relocation of Route 27, a part of the new AMVETS highway off Pleasant Street. Constant removal of dirt by shovel and truck, in never-ceasing daytime times from the site to the new road, has reduced what was once a hilly woodland to level ground.

55-0974 Nancy Thomas HurtApril 27, 1955

One person was slightly injured at 8 o'clock this morning in an accident at Green and Glenwood Streets, involving autos operated by Angelo DiMeo, 26 Marion Street, and Miss Nancy C. Thomas, 4 Silver Road. The latter was taken to Brockton Hospital by Patrolmen Robertson and Upron and after treatment for a bruised left hip, was discharged to her home. Patrolmen Burns, who investigated, stated that the DiMeo car was traveling south on Glenwood Street and the Thomas auto east on Green Street. Considerable property damage resulted to both vehicles. Police in a cruiser were dispatched to Winter and Spark Streets at 7:45 this morning after receipt of a telephone call at headquarters that there was an auto crash at the intersection. Officers on arrival found both operators to be uninjured. Highway department employees cleared the roadway of debris resulting from the collision of the two vehicles.

55-0985 Drivers Miss Serious Hurts as Cars CollideApril 25, 1955

F. Byman Gee, 191 Central Street, Stoughton, and Harry R. McBee, 93 Oak Grove Avenue, Fall River, escaped serious injuries when their cars collided at West and Belmont Streets Monday afternoon. According to Patrolman J. Noonan and J. Burns, who investigated, Gee was proceeding South on West Street and McBee was headed east on Belmont Street when the crash occurred at the intersection. The left front of Gee's car was damaged and the left side of McBee's car caved in by the impact. McBee suffered minor cuts on the thumb and index finger of his left hand and Gee was uninjured. The cars were towed away.

55-1046 Accident on Battles StreetMay 6, 1955

A Stoughton man escaped serious injury just before 10:30 P.M. Friday, when his car failed to make the curve at the west end of the Battles Street hill opposite the Howard Johnson plant, careened for 150 feet, glanced off two trees and wedged against another, narrowly missing a telephone pole. The driver said he was uninjured and refused medical attention. He told police he was driving home when he failed to make the sharp curve. The left side of the car was caved in, window broken, windshield cracked, door pushed in, front left smashed. The impact tore the watch from his wristband and tossed it through the window. Albert N. DiStefano, 25, of 738 Park Street, Stoughton, told Patrolmen Edward Tamulevich, Charles R. Powderly, John Clark, and Gergory Froio that he had felt a little groggy but could get home all right. A cab was called and he left after making arrangement to have the wreck towed away.

55-1099 Randolph House DamagedMay 6, 1955

An auto which went of of control on a sharp curve broke through the foundation and entered a wall of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman W. Winters, 298 Main Street, in a rainstorm shortly before midnight Thursday night. John Conley, 23, of 7 Fuller Street, whom police identified as the driver of the auto, complained of an arm injury but refused hospital treatment. The car missed by inches the wall of the room where Doreen L. Winters, 16, was sleeping. She was thrown out of her bed by the impact as was her brother, Robert, 17, in an upstairs bedroom. Although the noise aroused the entire neighborhood, a younger brother of preschool age slept through all the excitement. Patrolmen John Condlin and Joseph Madden who investigated the accident said the crash is one of many which have taken place at the bend in the road on South Main Street near Firtch terrace. They said the auto skidded on the wet pavement and crashed into the house which is located 40 yards from the main highway. The outside meter was broken and police called the Weymouth Power and Electric Co. to restore electrical service to the house. The front end of the auto was badly damaged, and it had to be towed away from the scene.

55-1117 Hanover Accident Route 139February 17, 1955

Two Duxbury women were injured Thursday evening at 7:20 in a two-car accident on Hanover Street, this town, not far from the Stanley Briggs Stable when autos operated by Arthur C. Crapo, 37, of 339 Circuit Street, West Hanover, and Miss Abby L. Taylor, 65, of Harrison Avenue, Duxbury, were in collision, according to Hanover police. Miss Taylor and a passenger, Mrs. Flora Garlson, 50, also of Duxbury, complained of neck and leg injuries and were treated at the office of Dr. Allan Enos, Hanover, after which they were removed in the Hanover cruiser to Jordan Hospital, Plymouth. Miss Taylor was admitted to the hospital for further treatment, the hospital said, but Mrs. Carlson was treated and discharged. According to the Hanover police, both cars were traveling easterly when the Crapo car allegedly struck the Taylor car, sending it into a field off the road. Investigating officers included T. Drew Bates, Jeremiah Hayes and Wendell Blanchard of Hanover, aided by County identification officer Howard Levings.

55-1133 8 Hurt in Whitman Crash, 6 in One Family InjuredJanuary 8, 1955

Eight persons, including six members of a Brockton family, were severely injured in a head-on collision of two autos on Temple St., a quarter mile from the Brockton line, at 9:30 tonight. Six are in critical condition. On the danger list at Brockton Hospital are Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Hanberry of 63 Harvard St., Brockton; their daughters, Joanne, 7, Patricia, 2; Harold Perry, 38, of 134 Raynor St., Whitman; and Harold A. Thomas, 59, of 115 Raynor St. Also hospitalized were the Hanberry's two other children, Donald, 4, and Michele, 3. Mr. and Mrs. Hanberry in one car, and Thomas, passenger in the second, were pinned in the wreckage until State and Whitman police extracted them. Perry, identified by police as driver of one of the cars, was thrown into the road by the impact. Seven ambulances and fire apparatus from Whitman and Brockton were dispatched to the scene, in front of Edward's Clam House.

55-1139 One Hurt as Autos Crash on Howard St.March 26, 1955

A man and a young boy were taken to Brockton Hospital this afternoon after two autos collided near 482 Howard Street, at the Brookville line. Walter Webb, 29, of 387 Washington Street, Hanson, suffered a head injury. The boy, still unidentified, did not require medical attention. They were taken to the hospital by Patrolmen Anderson and Cody. Peter F. McNeil, 36 Pond street, Holbrook, told police he was driving northerly on Howard street. He said he applied the brakes and his car skidded to the left side of the road, bounced off a tree and hit an oncoming machine. Police reported that the left fender of McNeil's car ended up on top of the hood of the other auto. Kennedy and Co., 30 Ridge Ave, Ext, Cambridge

55-1227 Flag EnthusiastesMay 18, 1955

Flag Enthusiastes are five Whitman youths that salute the flag that stands near their home every morning. The Kiwanis Club in Whitman has started a flag drive to have more flags hanging this coming Memorial Day, and the American flag was placed where the children play. The children thus started its morning practice, to the amazement of their parents, of saluting the stars and stripes. They are, from left to right, Diane E. Plasse, seven, 34 Forest Street; Dawn M. Swift, four, 886 Bedford Street; Christine L. Burbine, four, 18 Forest Street; Frank W. Swift, three, 886 Bedford Street and Richard M. Burbine, two, 18 Forest Street, all from Whitman. The flag is in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Arau of 892 Bedford Street who was thrilled as the youngsters line up to give the flag salute. As they watched from their window they could see the little group of pre-school age children file by the flag giving the correct flag salute. Later on, the little tots recruited others and organized a parade, complete with a couple of drummers, paying further respect to the flag.

55-1228 Accident Crescent St. Near Pine St. and GladstoneMay 20, 1955

Two operators hurt as cars hit at corner. One person was hospitalized and another sustained less serious injuries in a collision between two cars at Crescent and Gladstone Streets at 12:05 this morning. Jerry Grosso, 40, of 9 Oakland Place, Brockton, is reported in "good condition" today at the Brockton Hospital. Authorities say he suffered chest injuries, a concussion, and multiple contusions. Patrolmen, Thomas Sullivan and DaSilva identified Grosso as the operator of one of the cars. Treated at the hospital and discharged was Elizabeth Turcotte, 43, of 14 LaFoye Street. The hospital reports she sustained severe bruises of both legs and a bruise on the head. Patrolmen Sullivan and DaSilva say that Grosso was operating his car east on Crescent Street and attempted to pass a machine driven by Harold R. Cornwall, 53, Macy Avenue, when, the mishap occurred. The right side of the frond end of Grosso's car was extensively damaged, report the officers, as well as the left front fender, headlight, bumper, and hood of the Cornwall car.

55-1450 Crash Hurts Two Sailors, BrocktonJune 13, 1955

Bridgewater-two sailors en route to their ship in Boston were injured last night shortly after 11 pm when their car overturned on the new Fall River expressway. According to the report of the Bridgewater police, the car traveled a distance of 164 feet after hitting a guide post. Fourteen guide posts were hit with seven of them being ripped from the ground. At the Brockton Hospital are Milton H. Larson, 26, of Illinois, and Gerald C. Becker of New York. According to the police the two men were headed toward Boston on the south bound lane when the accident occurred. Both are aboard the USS Kula Gulf docked in Boston. Hermes Boyatis of 12 Palm Place and Miss Jane Manthron of 51 Lenex Street, both Brockton residents, were traveling just behind the Larson car and administered first aid until the arrival of the police. Taken to the hospital in the police ambulance and the Bridgewater Fire Department ambulance. Larson's injuries were serious cuts on the back and forehead, and possible fractured skull. Becker's injuries consisted of severe cuts on the left hand and head injuries.
