

Gender Based Misconduct Policy

Person who may be the victim can report to:

Campus Police 508-565-5555

Residence Life 508-565-1290

Student Affairs 508-565-1363

What happens next?

If criminal investigation is not requested

If criminal investigation is requested:

Title IX Investigation Process Begins

Conversation w/Campus Police

Conversation w/Title IX Investigator(s)

w/Title IX Investigator(s)

&

During this time, the person who may be a victim, witness(es), and accused student(s) will be interviewed by a trained Title IX Investigator. A recommendation will be to the Dean of Students who can accept, decline, or modify the recommendation.

Outcome meeting w/Dean of Students

Potential Appeal

Resources: The Hill Book—SHARE 508-565-1331— Counseling Center 508-565-1331

Gender Based Misconduct Policy

For the Accused Student(s):

What happens next?

If criminal investigation is not requested

If criminal investigation is requested:

Title IX Investigation Process Begins

Conversation w/Campus Police

Conversation w/Title IX Investigator(s)

w/Title IX Investigator(s)

&

During this time, the person who may be a victim, witness(es), and accused student(s) will be interviewed by a trained Title IX Investigator. A recommendation will be to the Dean of Students who can accept, decline, or modify the recommendation.

Outcome meeting w/Dean of Students

Potential Appeal

Campus Police 508-565-5555

Residence Life 508-565-1290

Student Affairs 508-565-1363

Resources: The Hill Book—SHARE 508-565-1331— Counseling Center 508-565-1331