

The Nonprofit Starter Guide

November 13th BreakFACTS

Presented by Georgia Antonopoulos

ROCKLAND
TRUST

Sponsored by:

Where Each Relationship Matters®

At the Center, we get many questions on how and when to start a nonprofit. If you're considering forming a nonprofit, or are in the early stages of establishing your organization, this session may be for you.

In this workshop, you will learn how to:

- Assess whether nonprofit incorporation is the right path for your endeavor
- Understand the responsibilities you will take on if you pursue this option
- Identify the steps you'll need to take if you decide to move forward
- Familiarize yourself with the forms and annual filings that you will encounter
- Examine the board and resource development challenges that you will face

Date: November 13, 2012
Time: 8:30am Coffee & Registration
9am—12pm Workshop
Cost: $25/person, includes continental breakfast
Location: Brocktonian Room
16 Belmont Street
N. Easton, MA 02357

All session participants will be invited to share their particular concerns for group feedback in an interactive and informative workshop setting!

About the Facilitator:

Georgia Antonopoulos is Director of the Center for Nonprofit Management at Stonehill College, responsible for internal and external operations since 2006. As the Center's Director, Georgia leads its external outreach and fund development efforts, signature training programs and specialized consultancies in the areas of organizational assessment, board development and strategic planning.

Georgia serves on the board of the Massachusetts Nonprofit Network as a founding board member and as its Southeast Region representative. She also serves as a board member for the Community Foundation of Greater Plymouth County and for the United Way of Greater Plymouth County's Allocations & Community Impact Committees. Additionally, Georgia has recently joined as a Trustee for the Massachusetts 4-H Foundation and a board member for the Boys & Girls Club of Brockton. Georgia also serves on the Strategic Planning Committee at Stonehill College.

Prior to her arrival at Stonehill, Georgia worked and consulted with a range of Massachusetts-based nonprofit organizations on business planning, marketing, and development. In addition, she worked for three years in fundraising and grant making for the Newton Schools Foundation. Georgia has a strong interest in entrepreneurship and has served as the lead organizer for the Hellenic Business Network (HBN) Big Idea business plan competition in Boston.

Georgia received her M.B.A. from Boston University with concentrations in Public & Nonprofit Management and Strategy. She obtained her B.A. in English from Wellesley College.
