About DFLI

The Center for Nonprofit Management at Stonehill College (CNM) offers exceptional and motivated Stonehill College students a unique program aimed at developing future nonprofit leaders. For students interested in developing fundraising skills, DFLI offers trainings at CNM including an initial boot camp, along with a semester full of cross-departmental training modules led by the Advancement Division at the College. DFLI prepares students to become candidates for internship or job placements at area nonprofit organizations.

The following questions will help us to better anticipate what your internship or job needs will be following the DFLI program. For DFLI Fall 2014, the internships would be during the Spring 2015 Semester.

Please answer as best as you can at this time.

Would you be able to accept an internship in the Stonehill College or greater Boston area following the completion of the DFLI program? (Spring 2015)

YES NO

If no, what circumstances might prevent you from participating in an internship following the DFLI program?

Do you have any fields of interest or specific organizations in mind for an internship/job? (Ex. education, health care, youth programs etc.)

Rising Seniors ONLY: What are your potential immediate plans upon graduation from Stonehill (2015)?

Thank you for submitting your application for DFLI Fall 2014!
