20879 PHL112-B, CS: Death: Philosophical Questions & Answers
Prof. A. Carmichael
This course will focus mainly on philosophical questions about the self and death: What am "I"? Do we have souls or are we just physical bodies? Does "person" necessarily mean "human"? What makes someone the same person over time? What happens after death? If death is the end, is that a bad thing? Is suicide ever rational or morally acceptable?

20314 PHL 114-B, CS: Our Bodies, Ourselves
Prof. M. Mitchell
This course explores some of the questions that are raised by recognizing that we are not just minds — we are embodied creatures. How should we organize society to provide for our bodily needs? Should we worry about the death of our bodies? Are our minds and our bodies really different?

20316 PHL 116-A, CS: What You Thought You Knew
Prof. A. Lannstrom
What is true happiness? Is morality real, or is it just a made up thing? Everything we experience is put together by our brains --- how, then, can we be sure any of it is really true? Are we secretly biased? Does God exist? Should all protests be non-violent or is violence sometimes allowable?

Prof. C. Mekios
An examination of how philosophers have historically treated questions pertaining to the relationship between mind and body, the concept of the self, the human condition, and the limits of what we can know about such things. What makes these problems philosophical in nature? Could they be resolved by science instead?

Prof. J. Velazquez
Why do we enjoy sitcoms where the characters suffer social and romantic disasters: are we just cruel or is there some other explanation? Is morality something real or is power the only reality and morality just an illusion? What kind of compassion is the best kind? Why are flowers beautiful? What’s the hidden meaning of the marriage ceremony?
