

COURSE WITHDRAWAL Q&A SPRING 2020

Course Withdrawal Q&A

What does 'withdraw from a course' mean?

If you withdraw from a course, a W will be on your transcript instead of a traditional grade.

What do I need to think about before withdrawing from a course?

Withdrawing from a course can have significant consequences [e.g., credits completed vs. attempted can impact financial aid, full-time vs. part-time status (12 credits is needed to remain full-time), residency requires full-time status, athletic eligibility, etc.]. Before proceeding with the process to withdraw from a class to make sure that you understand the advantages, disadvantages, and potential consequences of withdrawing from a course, please consult your financial aid counselor (finaid@stonehill.edu; 508-565-1088), and a professional advisor in the Office of Academic Services & Advising (academic services@stonehill.edu; 508-565-1306).

How do I withdraw from a class?

Send an email to the professor letting them know that you are intending to withdraw from the course. Then forward the reply from the professor and the completed Course Withdrawal Form (available in myHill > Students > Academics > Registration Forms) to the Office of Academic Services & Advising (academicservices@stonehill.edu).

What is the deadline for withdrawing from a course?

The last day of classes, Wednesday, April 29, is the deadline for submitting the Course Withdrawal Form to the Office of Academic Services & Advising (academicservices@stonehill.edu).
