

Sexual and Gender-Based Misconduct and Interpersonal Violence Process

A Reporting Party can report to any and all of the following:

Campus Police 508-565-5555

Easton Police 508-230-3322

Title IX Coordinator 508-565-1105

Residence Life 508-565-1290

Student Affairs 508-565-1363

Online Incident Report Form:

What happens next?

If criminal investigation is not requested

If criminal investigation is requested:

Title IX investigation process begins

Conversation w/ Police

Conversation w/Title IX Investigator(s)

w/ Title IX Investigator(s)

&

During this time, the Reporting Party, Responding Party, and witnesses will be interviewed by a trained Title IX Investigator(s). Upon completion of the investigation, the Investigator(s) will offer to meet with the Reporting Party and Responding Party separately to discuss (post fact finding but before a recommendation has been made with regard to responsibility) the facts gleaned in the matter and to offer a final opportunity to the parties to ensure both have been afforded the opportunity to present all relevant witnesses and evidence before the finding is reached.

Outcome meeting w/Associate Vice President for Student Affairs/Dean of Students

Potential appeal w/ Vice President for Student Affairs

For on and off campus resources, please visit: www.stonehill.edu/title9

Sexual and Gender-Based Misconduct and Interpersonal Violence Process

Person who is the Responding Party:

What happens next?

If criminal investigation is not requested

Title IX investigation process begins

Conversation w/ Title IX Investigator(s)

If criminal investigation is requested:

Conversation w/ Police

w/ Title IX Investigator(s)

During this time, the Reporting Party, Responding Party, and witnesses will be interviewed by a trained Title IX Investigator(s). Upon completion of the investigation, the Investigator(s) will offer to meet with the Reporting Party and Responding Party separately to discuss (post fact finding but before a recommendation has been made with regard to responsibility) the facts gleaned in the matter and to offer a final opportunity to the parties to ensure both have been afforded the opportunity to present all relevant witnesses and evidence before the finding is reached.

Outcome meeting w/ Associate Vice President for Student Affairs/Dean of Students

Potential appeal w/ Vice President for Student Affairs

Campus Police 508-565-5555

Counseling Services 508-565-1331

Community Standards 508-565-1323

For on and off campus resources, please visit: www.stonehill.edu/title9