

The Mount Vernon Leadership Fellows

Located just outside of Washington D.C., The Mount Vernon Leadership Fellows is a competitive five-and-a-half week summer leadership program that offers a small, select group of 12 rising college juniors unparalleled opportunities in the nation's capital and on the famous estate of America's first president.

Fellows will engage in dynamic academic workshops, experiential activities, and a capstone project that fully utilizes the rich resources of Washington, D.C., the nation's newest presidential library, and the famous estate of America's first president. Fellows will experience impactful personal growth, develop a network of professional contacts, present a mission-oriented service project, and become a lifelong member of a connected and engaged community of program alumni.

We are looking for individuals who are more than intelligent - they are young men and women of action; leaders who are willing to give themselves to something they truly believe in. We are looking for a variety of causes, passions, academic backgrounds, personalities, personal histories, university experiences, majors, and interests.
