

Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program

The Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program is a six-week summer program designed to provide undergraduate students with a deeper appreciation of current issues and trends in international affairs, a greater understanding of career opportunities in international affairs, and the enhanced knowledge and skills to pursue such careers. The Program usually selects 15-20 participants (known as “Rangel Scholars”) each year from universities throughout the United States. Students live at Howard University, attend classes, and participate in a variety of programs with foreign affairs professionals at Howard and at diverse locations around Washington, DC.

Eligibility

Competitive Applicants:

- must be full-time undergraduate students, with at least sophomore status on the date of the application deadline;
- must have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale at the time of application; and
- must be U.S. citizens.

Terms of Award

- Two courses and a seminar focusing on enhancing knowledge and skills related to U.S. foreign policy, economic and writing
- Introduction to a wide range of government and non-government professionals who work on global issues
- Visits to various institutions involved in international affairs
- Assistance exploring graduate school, scholarship, fellowship, internship, and professional options in international affairs
- Tuition, travel, housing, and two meals per day are provided
- Stipend of $3,200

Application Deadline

- Early February

Additional Information

- Visit: www.rangelprogram.org

If interested in applying contact:

Craig A. Almeida
Dean of Academic Achievement
calmeida@stonehill.edu
508-565-1840

Kris Silva
Nationally Prestigious Awards Advisor
ksilva@stonehill.edu
508-565-1559